

Thank You

I went to The County Journal last week to place an ad for my lost dog, the employees were more concerned about my missing dog and me than selling an ad. An employee from a different department even came up to the front to ask me what kind of dog I was missing, because earlier someone had called in with a found dog. I really appreciated all the kindness they all showed me.

*Thank you to the staff of The County Journal,
Emily Nenortas of Charlotte*